THE TABLES

WHAT WE DO

A table has been a meeting place throughout history. When people come together at a table, lives change. It has been the center-piece for creating and sharing ideas, supporting each other in times of need planning and dreaming the future, celebrating, sharing a meal, or changing the world.

We are proud to make this possible -from a simple table to share food, a custom community table to gather with friends, to boardroom table to make big decisions - these tables are for generations.

OUR STYLE

INSPIRATION

We are influenced by nature, mesmerized by wood grain, and seduced by the simplicity of Danish design.

Using age-old techniques results in a finished product that is thoughtfully crafted with careful attention to every detail. The entire process, from sourcing the raw materials, to building the shipping crates, is created in our Surrey BC shop.

PROJECT ZERO

SUSTAINABILITY

Project Zero is our attempt to become a zero waste operation. We aim to use every piece of wood that comes through our doors. The pieces of wood we transform come from all around us, which is why protecting the environment is a core value of Claterpult Woodworks.

Project Zero in action

We bring our sawdust to a local farmer who uses it for his horses stalls

Hardwood scraps are used for small projects

We are in the process of eliminating all single use plastics, including mixing cups and plastic gloves

We use reclaimed wood as much as possible

MATERIALS

LOCALLY SOURCED

Claterpult proud to source materials locally: from Squamish to Seattle. We aim to use the materials in our back yard. These are the wood grains that inspire us to design thoughtfully.

We choose from a variety of species all varying in hardness, durability, price, and appearance. This means that we can find the perfect solution to fit your image and budget.

As always, custom sizing and colour finishes are an option.
